THE DIVINE MANIFESTING LAWS

THE REGAL SPIRITUAL POWER OF GRATITUDE!

THE HIGH OFFICE OF THANKS!

INTRODUCTION

Through your Gratitude you Touch the Very Heart of the Universe, and Every Atom of Existence Is Moved to Respond To You

THE HIGH OFFICE OF THANKS!

Gratitude Is The Initiating Power & The Regal Creative Force!

Today we are talking about the High Office of Thanks. Thanks should ever go before us, the first word that moves out on our breath. Why do we Give Thanks? What is the mystical power of Thanks? When that word, “Thanks”, travels out on our breath into the great atmosphere of being, what happens?

“Thanks” is a sacred word of inner conviction that contains every power of creation, which goes before us to move out upon the waters of Creation, to create exactly that which we want. Thanksgiving, therefore, connects us to all Divine Powers on invisible planes, and moves in an all-encompassing action to ignite and gather unto itself all that we need.

“Thanks” is a method, and a way, in our heart of hearts, that we commune with our beloved Source. It is said that for the joyous life, all we need to do is continually give Thanks, morning, noon, and night. If we didn't know one word of English or any other language, not one word of communication, if all we could say is, "Thanks, thanks, thanks, thanks," that would be enough for Kingdoms to be ours, for Thanks is the language of the Divine Soul and of Love.

Thus, Thanksgiving is not only a word, not only an attitude, it is a Spiritual Substance, filled with all the power of Divine Creation, the power that readily goes before us to engage every atom of the universe to act on our behalf. Thanksgiving is filled with the substance of the Cosmic Heart, the all-embracing Sacred Heart that knows its Oneness with All. Thanksgiving is irresistible to God, to all creative forces of the Limitless Universe, and so it is that Thanks reigns and rules first, ever in the Creative Order. The word of Thanks is foremost always in the consciousness of every mystic. For every Master you have ever heard of, the first word is Thanks. This constant Heart of Gratitude appears throughout all sacred writings. In the Bible, we are reminded that The Christ, the perfected One, always Gave Thanks to the Father, the Great Source, the Great Law, before the thing was manifest.

“Thank you, Father, thou hast heard me.” “Thou art my sufficiency.” “Thank you, Father, Creative Principle... Thou hast heard me. And I know Thou hearest me always.” Thanks is that beautiful sound, the conviction of one’s prayer being answered, the word that breaks down barriers, in its holy vibration . A heart filled with Gratitude breaks the barriers of sound, of time and space, and limitation, softening and melting away all obstruction, reaching into and touching the very substance of God.

Before you do anything... Give Thanks. Before you call up that person you are wanting to speak to, Give Thanks. Before you call, and you call and you call here and there, Give Thanks to the Divine in you that all things come out right. Before you do anything, before you make a business deal, before whatever activity you are embarking on, Give Thanks for the most perfect right results.

While you are in the middle phases, where creation is happening on those subtle, invisible planes, and you are not seeing what the result is yet, when the roots are in the soil and the thing is happening, Give Thanks continually. Before the light of manifestation, Give Thanks.

Give Thanks, also, after your good harvest. Stand back and admire God's handiwork, and Give Thanks. Create a constant stream of gratitude between you and the Most High, overflowing.

Give Thanks for all of your life, for your entire life, and all in it. Give Thanks for every person who has been there for you, for every friend.

Give Thanks for your every acquisition, no matter how small it may seem to be, small or large, every breakthrough you have ever made, every stride that you have ever made, every love that you have ever had, every friend, every miracle, the entire thing.

In this way, you accumulate a fortress of Spiritual Power, and you also create more of any and all good things that have blessed your life. You make more of the good you seek by Giving Thanks. Remember, Thank-you is not just a word. It is not just a nice attitude. Gratitude is a Divine, Creative Substance, the substance of all of life is stirred up by Thanks. And so it is that heartfelt Thanks unites you with the entire cosmos of being. Your heartfelt Gratitude-In-Advance goes before you, uniting you with every single form of good.

When you are centered in a consciousness of Gratitude and Oneness, what happens? You now have access to all of that Unlimited Creative Force that abounds in the universe. When you speak Thanks, you override limitation.

Through Gratitude before, during and after you are united on the inner planes of the cosmos of being with everyone and everything. Know that your silent gratitude to the Most High always makes more of the good that you have. Talk about the yeast that raises the dough. Thanks really does it all.

Be sure to understand why Gratitude is so powerful. Be wise as well as loving. Wisdom with Love is probably the greatest place we can be in. Be sure that you consciously are Giving Thanks for what you want, and not for what you don't want...for what you want to perpetuate and take with you and make more of.

For did you know that when we are in fear, we are actually choosing to stay in fear?

Remember, you always have an option, and remaining in the negative state of fear is a choice. Rather than remaining at this non-constructive level, you have the sublime choice to move into Faith and to do what you know to do.

When we choose to live in fear, we are projecting the negative, aren't we? Therefore, in essence, you can say, that in such moments we are preparing to receive or Giving Thanks for what we do not want. Another word for Giving Thanks is expectation, what I am preparing for. Thus always substitute Faith for fear, taking your attention off contemplation of the negative and through Gratitude, rising up to contemplate and expect what you truly want, exchanging what you don't want for what you truly want..

Strive to be very alert when your mind starts to drift to negative speculation. When fear arises, consciously stop and realize: "Uh-oh, I am creating something I don't want here. Let me nip that in the bud and let me get clear here and just Give Thanks, clear my mind, and restate to myself what I am Giving Thanks for". Remember, you are in charge. You can use your mighty tool of Faith, or you can remain in fear. It is your choice, and both are equally creative, setting the trajectory of your outcome.

Thus, be sure you are always Giving Thanks for what you want and more, and for the unseen good.

In the secret place of all creative action and the commencement of any creative pattern, be sure you are in silent communion with that constructive, creative force. Tell it you trust it. Tell it you know it, for it is the invisible power that has always manifest for you every good that you have experienced up until this moment, and that you shall ever experience.

Have a good relationship with Divine Substance through Gratitude. Have an honorable relationship with your omnipotent friend, your best friend, your subjective creative mind within, who never denies you, unless you yourself say, "Deny me." Know your friend, the great creative power within you, responds to you. If you say, "I can have," it says, "All right. I am going and I am getting you your good." And if you say, "But I can't have, now I feel I can't have." "Okay, I'm stopping." Your best friend just follows your lead.

Dare to Give Thanks-in-Advance, and do not be afraid. Give Thanks to this great subjective power for all the good that you want. "Thank you, thank you." Just be simple. "Thank you that you are doing this for me. Thank you, you are making my day great tomorrow, more profitable, more fun, more joyous than it has ever been. Thank you.” And then just describe and envision what it is that you would like, and it shall be made so.

Go off to sleep in a consciousness of Gratitude every evening, and you will find: There your good is ~ the next day.

“Thank you, I know you go before me” Affirm this often. “I know you go before me in the invisible and establish me in all my ways.” This power within you responds to what you expect from it. It takes orders and instruction from you. It is your willing servant, carrying out your fondest desire, and it knows how. When all the world says no to you, when you have gone through all the available resources and done all that you know to do in the outer world, when all the world shall shun you, say no to you, it says “yes”, and it knows how, when the entire world has failed you.

And sometimes, we have to come to the point when things don't seem to be working ~ to finally realize, "Oh, I forgot to ask from the Primary Source.” When all around you would seem to deny ~ never doubt this Infinite Power within of limitless harmonious ways and means. Never doubt it that your lustrous manifestation shall be so in perfect right ways. When everything has failed you, that Divine and Sublime Source stands behind you and is there.

What else is so wonderful about Thanks? After centering in the good increase you want, asking and Giving Thanks...

THE REGAL SPIRITUAL POWER OF GRATITUDE!

realize Gratitude also acts to multiply the good we have. That which I praise and acknowledge and that which I am happy for increases in my life, for now the energy of my attention is on the sublime Providing Law and Principle. That beam of Light is on it and is automatically multiplying the good I am grateful for, increasing in power.

“That which I am grateful for, I shall never be denied.”

When a friend is grateful to you, don't you want to give more of the same good? If this is so on the human level, imagine how much more it is so on the level of the Divine you.

When you are filled with the substance of your Gratitude, the thing you are Giving Thanks for begins to expand, now flowing over every boundary to make more, an ever-responsive fountain of self-contained and Infinite Good. Thus, if you want more, rather than complaining and judging and saying there is not enough and how hard it is and good is hard to come by, rather than working hard and slaving to appease outer powers, fickle powers, someone and something who may or may not give you what you want, go to your God, who is stable and who never denies you.

Your good may definitely show up in the outer through a person, for God always finds the open door...yet contact your Inner Source first, and simply Give Thanks. Go above the effects of the world. Go above all those opinions and attitudes out there about you. God knows who you are. Go above it all, and. stay in your High Ark of endless Gratitude.

Rise above and go free to the One who does not bargain with you, who does not diminish you, who would not put you through any ringer, who loves you, to whom you are precious, and to whom all things are easy to accomplish, whose door of acceptance is open, and to whom each and every one is adored. You don't have to struggle to open this mighty door to the Kingdom. It is already open unto you. Each one of us, not just some of us... each one of us has our special door and our special line of vibration, our line of communication with the Most High.

Regardless of name, history, status, credentials... to this Source, each one of us is perfect and the beloved. Go there to the Sacred Place in your heart, and say: "Thank you. I know thou hearest me always." "Bring forth my good. in your transcendent ways, above and beyond conditions, persons, places, things, independently... Bring forth my good pressed down and running over. I love you." Say I love you often. Love contains every power, and acts to multiply every good. Love is Praise. Love is Thanks. Love is appreciation of sublime relationship with God.

Everything in nature responds to the twin elements of Praise and Gratitude. Why should it be any different at the level of the human rising into his or her Divine Nature.? Extend your love: "I love you, my beautiful God-Source, great I am, and I love thy bountiful world.” Refrain from falling into criticism of this world that we live in. It is God's world. Affirm, "I love it." Now, have you been hurt? Sure. So what? Still and still, love this world....for there is that within you that can always rise up unaffected. Have you been been angry? “They did things to me.” So what? You can still love this world, for it is God's world, where Divine Love reigns supreme, and know: “I am in me is greater than anything that comes to me.”

Learn to relate always to the Greater in you...to say: "So what?" to all that would deny. Learn now, that you may derive of every exquisite benefit. Don't wait to Give Thanks, trying every other method of creation first. Do not short circuit your good, by living on the surface, amongst the “they say(s)”...what the world tells you is the way to go about getting your good, trying everything else like the prodigal son, going out and trying the whole thing of fascination with the world, and then at last returning home to find the keys of good and the most exquisite banquet was already laid out for you.

Don't wait to return to your home at the blissful summit, to find out that your Divine Father/Mother was never angry with you, just happy to see you.

Don't wait until crisis becomes your wake-up call. Learn to go to your Source first and foremost. Align through the mighty force of humble, heartfelt Gratitude-in-Advance. You don't have to have crisis to meet God. Just go there first. Go to the Primary Source first, and let all the right persons, places and conditions unfold for your Greatest Outcome.

At the same time, even if you have wandered far, no matter how far, know you can return, and you shall instantly find full acceptance awaiting you. With a first word of Thanks, there is a complete forgiveness, complete alignment.

So don't feel sorry or grieve over the past or hard attitudes that have constricted you or false fears that have limited your joy. Just come back. Just come back to your kingdom and enjoy the simplicity of it and its great majesty now.

Just because you have not experienced great good in the past doesn't mean that you can't right now, just by Giving Thanks for it.

Have you conquered the world? Each one of us in some aspect has conquered our world, have come up over some phases. But have you conquered the world and still you are unhappy? Then you have forgotten to Give Thanks to the power of your life. Okay? If you are unhappy in attainment, you have forgotten to Give Thanks for that Great Power of Life, whose breath that you breathe, who was silently the force behind all that you achieved.

When we Give Thanks, we are filled with the warmth of Divine Spirit. We are invincible, and nothing can shake us. What we are giving thanks for tells the truth of our expectations, thus where our heart is, the harvest is, the increase is, and the Divine Outcome shall be. Where our heart is, is also the yield.

Are things out of order in your life? Is there lack? You have forgotten to Give Thanks. That is all, and so simple to correct. You have forgotten to Give Thanks. If you are missing something, be a great consciousness of prosperity and go around and bless everything you have right now. In doing so, whatever has been the problem will be healed. As you bless and Give Thanks for all that has added unto your well-being up until the present moment, no matter how small ~ you can be sure a wonderful healing will accompany that. Give thanks. Give Thanks.

Is there a long-held desire that has not yet manifest? Give Thanks. You have forgotten to Give Thanks. This word “Thanks” is nameless and placeless, belongs to no one, yet can be used by everyone.

It is the universal word that breaks barriers. It is the power of God. It is omnipotent.

Say Thank-you, and mountains shall fall before you. Say thanks, and your harvest right now, in whatever you are focused on, shall be better than ever before, the best ever. Always Give Thanks for the best ever to be yours. “Thank-you, this time, the very best is mine...greater than ever before.”

Give your heartfelt Thanks and all your hard conditions shall melt by the gaze of your love, the warmth and the fire of your love. Rejoice as all obstacles soften into those liquid rivers of golden good, becoming the gold of your soul. Say thanks to those who offend you. We have heard this over and over again. The alchemy of Gratitude is so powerful, capable of changing sadness and sorrow to joy. Say thanks to those who offend you, and that energy shall alchemize all between you, and your enemy shall become your friend. Be harmonized. And all in your world will harmonize right along with you.

Say Thanks, and you shall touch the Universal Heart and be wrapped in splendor. Gratitude is just so powerful

Only recently, I had asked one of the help to do something for me when I first came in to prepare for a conference. The first response was the usual: "I just work here. I can't do that. I don't have time." And then I suddenly remembered this power of Thanks. As I was just standing in the hallway speaking to the hotel staff: I just said, "Thank you," rather than reacting to the curt response. Don't you know that a minute later, several of the help had joined together, come to do what I had asked. This is how Gratitude is so instant.

Don't believe no's.

If someone says no to you, go apart and just within yourself give silent thanks. "Thank you." Don't believe it.

THE REGAL SPIRITUAL POWER OF GRATITUDE!

Let us just do a soulful meditation on this exalted approach, realizing the Divine Creative Power of Thanks.

CLOSING CENTERING MEDITATION

Let us each go within to that High and Holy Place of bountiful majesty, and let us say within, "Oh, my God, Light of my life, I love thee. And I Thank Thee right now for all thou hast done for me and all that thou shalt ever do.

Right now, at the summit of consciousness, I ask that thou shalt stream thy light, shine thy light, through and through this hard area of concern that has been on my mind."

"I Give Thanks that you do take action on my behalf and pierce through to the center of the Good Truth, which I know is present. I know that this good resides within, that it has always, and I Give Thanks that you shatter all the hardness everywhere in the atmosphere, and that you melt all obstruction, restriction, and conditions on every plane, both within and without and in all my atmosphere."

"Thank you, great God. Thou hast done this now. And thou dost bring me forth into thy land of omnipotent good and majesty, showering me with blessings near and far.

Thank you, thou hast cracked that seal over my good and brought it forth to me, so wonderful. Thou art wonderful, and I love you, and I am so grateful."

*"I rejoice that nevermore shall this condition come nigh me. Nevermore shall I know it. Nevermore shall it beset me, for I have the glory of being enthroned within my soul. I am raised in splendor and manifestation now. I am free, fully restored, and mightily enriched." And So It Is.

Now let us read our "I am" statement together, knowing that these words that we speak are established even as we speak them. Let the words settle and absorb in and throughout all of mind and heart.

HELPFUL INSTRUCTIONS FOR BEST USE

For strongest use of each talk provided, establish a major goal you would like for yourself, not thinking of how this may be accomplished or limiting in anyway.

Describe this goal to yourself in the most radiant detail, and then simply write it out, Giving Thanks that it is being established in the now and speaking in the present tense, i.e. “I Give Thanks I now have _____ (Fill in and describe), I Give Thanks I now Am _____ (Fill in and describe), I Give Thanks I am now manifesting _____ (Fill in and describe), etc.

Refer to your wonderful goal often, as long as you are working on any given talk. Whenever in doubt, simply turn within, Giving Thanks and once again describing to yourself in full. This definite action of spending quality time contemplating your goal “as if you have it now” serves to build the new prototype in your consciousness and heart, the new cup of acceptance, and before you know it ~ there it is... right there in your manifest world.

SUMMARY DESCRIPTION

“ATTAINING DIVINE CONSCIOUSNESS”

VOLUMES I-IV

Each talk highlights a particular theme. Volume I concentrates on the very first steps necessary for “Evolving Upwards In Mind” and discovering the true Divine Essence of who you really are. These talks will help you to set a new and radiant base line of connection within, from which you may now manifest your every good and enjoy the limitless bounty always available to you. Volume II follows with exciting talks on the “Divine Creative Laws” and how to most successfully manifest your good.

Each offering includes soaring meditation excerpts for your daily use and for maintaining consciousness at the Highest Level, as you continue to unfold the lustrous Truth of your limitless Divine Nature ~ transcendent of all past influence, ever one with the Most High.

To develop strong focus on the attainment of any goal, Dr. Linda suggests that you write out in detail the optimum good you are Giving Thanks for, even before you have received....always speaking in the present tense and as if you have the thing desired right now. This is a very important step for actualizing your most cherished goals and for achieving quantum leaps never before experienced. Gratitude – in – Advance is the yeast that raises the dough, and there is nothing God-in-you cannot achieve.

For example: If you are wanting wonderful new work, begin to Daily Give Thanks that you have a wonderful new position with wonderful pay, and then describe to yourself the conditions that will surround, thinking in terms of the most optimum conditions of wholeness, peace and fulfillment that you can conceive of, not wondering how. This will form a prototype of Divine wholeness in you, magnetic to optimum conditions of good; Follow this step with your statement of Gratitude: “Thank you, God ~ I now have.....(Fill in the Blanks)” for our word is Law and acts to magnetize to us what we are focused on.

Thus, whenever you are working on a new subject, always write out your “Gratitude-In-Advance”. And, as you then daily reference your most constructive goal, and then say the heartfelt words of your meditations, consciousness will strengthen and evolve to be at the place where you need to be for your manifestation to come forth.

Let your journey of raising consciousness be a delightful process ever upward, embracing the Kingdom of Bliss that has always been yours, more fruitful than ever known.

In Divine Consciousness, there is no limit to how much you can achieve.

LOVE & LIGHT PROFOUND, being the fullness of your Divine Self!
