CHAPTER ONE

LIVING YOUR IMMORTALITY NOW!

As we begin our ascent in consciousness to grasp the lustrous Immortal Truth of Being, I encourage the reader to take a moment to just relax and let go all thought-taking, and right now take a deep breath to the count of seven if you can, and then hold seven, and then release once again to the count of seven, twenty-one being the Divine number of completion. If you are unable, do what you can. This is centering and preparing to receive of illumination from the Divine center of yourself.

Now then, in order to access our Highest Good, we must know that this Highest Good (the ultimate potential expression for every aspect of life) is already resident in our Highest Consciousness, the summit, where we may sit in the regal place at the right hand of the Father. The point of breathing so deeply, richly and fully, filling every cell and atom of being with the Light of God, is not only to regenerate every atom of being, but to bring that consummate Divine energy up ~ to bring the breath up ~ to circulate the Divine Breath, not only increasing and rejuvenating brain cells, but bringing the energy up to make contact with the Ultimate and Highest point of Consciousness within.

Herein forever exists the complete substance of all your good. When we say the Kingdom of Heaven, we mean the Kingdom of Heaven is the Kingdom of Highest Consciousness ~ Highest Awareness of ourselves as one with the Infinite, one with the primal Light that animates and empowers all of being.

So to us, our good is the completeness of Divine Life ~ and I love this equation of what the Divine Name of God means – we know that the all-inclusive name of “God” equals every form of good. So whatever the good is that you have in mind for yourself, know that this objective is God- in- you right now, the substance of richest Divine Life in expression that you are seeking to bring forth. That is how the substance of God appears to you...in a form that you can personally recognize and that speaks to you of the Divine Presence and Power...that speaks to you of fulfillment.

In the wonderful book, “When You Can Walk On Water, Take the Boat” ~ the author recounts his very moving story of how he met God in his life, in a most personal and meaningful way. He had suffered much difficulty in his business and finances, and was seeking a new position. Through a series of miraculous encounters rich in Divine Guidance, the protagonist was led to seek a position in a top-notch firm. In one instance, he walks into the office of a very large and successful company located on the top floor of a soaring building that stretched high into the skies. He had obtained an appointment with the President, God. God's offices were all in white with the most glorious architecture, and when he entered he was greeted with aplomb and welcomed by the President, God itself, appearing as a very well-appointed man in a marvelous white suit, who then proceeded to choose him for the highly desirable position.

Here was God, speaking to him in a way he could recognize, becoming the completeness of the healing good sought. This is how the Law of Mind and manifestation works for us, when we are centered in Divine and fulfilling ideas, whether it be a business position, a perfect relationship, perfect healing from some traumatic event.

So remember this. When you are thinking in terms of good for yourself, whatever that might be, whether it is defense, whether it is protection, whether it is supply, whether it is support ~ always know, as the great Emma Curtis Hopkins says, "God is my support. God is my supply. God is my unfailing answer to every prayer and to the healing of every condition imaginable." When we call upon the Divine Name for whatever we need, this Divine Substance turns into utmost solution, through the stream of our conscious knowing, recognition and acceptance, moving upon the waters of being to become, on the physical manifest level, that which we so desire. So it really behooves us to commune in that place from whence all our good does come ~ the place on High, Divine Mind, in us ~ not afar off, but right within the depths of our very own soul, the flame of Divine Life always moving to become the likeness of our thought.

Through meditation and Spiritual Mind Treatment, we contact the Divine Source within. Treatment is the most elevated form of prayer, wherein we recognize the completeness and power of the Divine Presence and Power regarding our situations, rising far transcendent of circumstances into the Divine Realm, where all answers exist. And for those of you who aren't familiar, know that when we become conscious beings, aware of the power of ourselves, we also move into the domain where we understand we are responsible for the flow of our thoughts, realizing our experience depends upon what we are thinking into the Creative Mind.

Throughout the metaphysical world, Treatment is regarded as the most powerful tool, the consummate way of using your mind definitely in perfect order to establish a new current in your thinking pattern that forms a mold that then allows the experience sought to come through. Treatment is so very powerful because it aligns you with your Divine Source, the very Truth of your being, over, above and beyond, and regardless of your experience, and powers you in a clear, focused direction, where the all-encompassing mind of God can respond in full to you.

LIVING YOUR IMMORTALITY NOW!

The lustrous subject of our thought throughout this book is about “Living your Immortality Now” and the implications of arriving at that state of consciousness that transforms all in your world, and brings you very definitely and immediately to Higher States of Being and experience than ever before. Let us prepare.

SETTING THE GOAL

Now, breathing in and out of the radiance and completeness of Divine Life ~ Think of yourself in the purity of Highest Light, in your original body of perfection, before destructive habits formed ~ in the radiance of pure Divine Light. Every aspect of yourself, your atomic body is pulsating with the Light of Perfection.

Ask yourself, where have I gone off course? Is this natural to the Divine Me? If not, be willing to shed it all that you may return in all of body, mind and being to the beneficence of First Cause.

Now, taking a deep breath of peace and newly absorbing the perfection of the one Divine Self, return to the present, and remember all that you now want to change, all destructive habits you want to let go of for the sake of the Divine You; all that you want to transform and uplift, merging in the pure life of the most High ~ that you may extend your life indefinitely, recognizing always only one First Cause, One Presence and Power of unconditional Love and Light, reigning supreme over all in your world.

It is something else, a new and Divine world... to live from that consciousness that you are, as all the great masters have said, the Infinite, Eternal, Light and Energy of God-in-action, moving throughout your experiences, throughout lifetimes. With a consciousness and an awareness of your Immortal and Eternal existence filling your every moment, it stirs up that fabulousness, that profound and unassailable courageousness, knowing every step you take shall be victorious, catapulting you to a very Divine state of being, unleashing that Light of Faith that lets you know that regardless of whatever is in front of you now, that obstruction shall pass. You shall overcome, because of the life of God in you.

We are assured that as soon as we have discovered the Divine Principle inherent in any challenging experience and fully activated in our life and situation, that experience will release us, will dissolve to forever flow downstream into the nothingness from which it arose, and we are then eternally free to go on. It is so wonderful to know that nothing has come to devastate us. Everything has come to empower us, and when we do become clear about a thing and ascend into our Divine relationship with it, we also simultaneously become free of the need for it to ever occur again. And that is part of the real Eternality of our Spirit ~ that problems were never the goal. The goal of life is not to throw you ceaseless problems, nor for you to go round and round the karmic wheel over and over again, never rising out. The goal of life is your forever emancipation.

IMMORTALITY NOW AND FOREVER ~

HOW TO LIVE FOREVER IN YOUR DIVINE BODY OF LIGHT!

CHAPTER THREE

CELEBRATING YOUR IMMORTAL ESSENCE

“EXTENDING YOUR LIFE INDEFINITELY!”

Realize, we can go on these inner journeys at any time, by meditating within, and should often... envisioning the brightest possible future for ourselves, because like Christ said it is not enough to eliminate something or say no, we have got to now extend our vision beyond the parameters and boundaries we perceived ourselves in before... to get a greater vision for ourselves because truly without vision the people perish.

Every time, we have a vision that is greater than our now state, that gives the length of our will a place to go to, to form. But if you say it is over at a certain point, that is it.

Constantly evolve your inner pictures of yourself to greater and more fulfilling stages. Stretch your consciousness to include the good, the better, and the best every moment. Feel your possibilities in God, and place your whole confidence in an eternally wonderful future for yourself. Feed it with your good vision and practice expanding your vision for yourself always to include the greatest concepts that speak of life unfolding on greater and greater, more richly rewarding planes of existence. Always be extending your vision to include greater, greater, greater, greater.

So you see, the whole thing of destiny all rests in our choice. The future is our decision, and our vision precedes us... Vision and decision lead the way. Daily determine the Highest and Best Outcomes for yourself, filled with the radiance of the Divine.

EXTENDING YOUR LIFE INDEFINITELY!

If you can realize how powerful your consciousness is, you will guard your thought patterns. And as many great ones have said, strive to get to the place where nothing proceeds from your consciousness save that which you would like to see manifest in your life return to you.

There was a time, and many times I am sure, when cultures have come to the glorious point we are at now, where they have become transcendent, have opened up to the secrets, have learned their identity, and then somehow got caught in power-plays, and the collective society failed to grab hold and rise one rung further. Yet, there was a time when not one negative thought was entertained. If you looked up in Webster's Dictionary "the beginning of time," you wouldn't see one negative word. Persons wouldn't even have known what that was.

So it is for the individual to stream out all of this accumulated negativity, remembering negativity equals death, and to the degree that we are hanging out in a negative thought field, we are careening toward that unfortunate fate...encumbering and limiting the beautiful Immortal Light within, lading ourselves with more burden, and moving right toward an unwanted destiny ~ just playing the old scenario out all over again.

The only way straight up and out is by practicing right thought, right action, right knowing of who you are in essence...the Immortal life of the Creator Divine. Never forget. It doesn't matter what the feeling is or what may be going on in your life, you always want to remain centered in Divine Awareness of your beloved Divine and Immortal Self. This is called "living beyond appearances", and the guarantee of certain outstanding success, knowing; "Regardless of whatever appears, I am one with God." This force is the mighty force that causes you to walk on the water, to soar above and beyond the vicissitudes of the world, victorious in every challenge.

This is the force that is transcendent and whereby you can change literally your magnetic field to become a radiant field of Light. It is very easy to succumb to the lesser, and the human aspect just wants to get into those feelings, to get into the stuff. Yet, all of that just drags us down, binding us to the wheel of repetition and creating more bondage. It is only by conscious choice that we can stop ourselves midstream and change the trajectory of destiny, by using the Divine capacity of self-observation, exercising our gift of choice and consciously changing so that only that which we want to experience as our living reality proceeds from our every sacred silent thought, expectation and action.

Place no caps on yourself ~ knowing the completeness of the Divine is in you. Think not in terms of time and space ~ only in terms of manifesting greater and greater Light in the Eternal Now ~ the spark becoming the Immortal Flame.
